Under clause 22 (1) of the Central Order, the Textile Commissioner has specified the markings to be made and the prices at which cloth and yarn should be sold. The Textile Commissioner has since notified that the provisions relating to prices are no longer in force. The Textile Commissioner and the State Government will no longer be invoking the provisions of clauses 30, 30-A and 30-B of the Cotton Textiles (Control) Order, 1948 relating to sale of cloth and yarn by mills, wholesale dealers and retail dealers even though those clauses themselves have not been repealed.

Control over the movement of mill cloth, Powerloom cloth, and yarn from one zone to another is still in force. A permit is therefore necessary before a dealer can undertake such movements.

The policy of licensing of dealers in cloth and yarn continues to remain in force. The Mysore Cotton Cloth Dealers Licensing Order, 1948, and the Mysore Cotton Yarn (Control of Distribution) Order, 1948, are not repealed.

Mills are now free to charge any prices they like for their packings of cloth and yarn. No maxima have been prescribed. Manufacturers, and dealers are now free to sell any quantity of cloth or yarn at any price agreed upon between themselves and the buyers. Dealers can sell to one another irrespective of the distribution between Nominees, wholesale dealers and retail dealers or to consumers direct without reference to the prices, if any, stamped on the cloth or yarn.

Processors will have to affix only the Tex-mark and the month and year of packing on the cloth processed by them. Processed powerloom cloth also must bear the Tex-mark. Sale of processed mill cloth without these markings is an offence.

No manufacturer or dealer shall, even now refuse to sell cloth or yarn to any person without sufficient cause as required under sub-clause (5) of clause 24 of the Cotton Textiles (Control) Order, 1948, which is still in force.

Consequent on the removal of price and distribution controls over mill-made cloth and yarn, the collection of half per cent centage on Ex-mill value of cloth and yarn procured by dealers in the State is also discontinued and therefore, the countersigning of the Railway Receipts by the Controller of Civil Supplies before taking delivery of the goods is also discontinued.
